To: Executive Directors

Congratulations on starting The Georgia Contractor magazine in the spirit of creating a common voice for the construction industry in the State of Georgia. With this magazine, communications among all of Georgia's many important contractor associations will be the key to advancement and understanding of events in the contracting industry.

The Georgia Contractor will provide added value to the readers and members of associations in education, emerging technologies, business opportunities, wireless communications and many other areas of interest, not the least of which is to know what government leaders are doing to advance our State.

Good luck in this new and vital undertaking.

Sincerely,
